In presenting this brief, descriptive price list, which supersedes former lists, I have made the prices very low in order to close out surplus stock this Fall.

In grading sizes, the letter L signifies large bulbs $1\frac{1}{4}$" and larger; M medium, $\frac{3}{4}$" to $1\frac{1}{4}$"; S small, under $\frac{3}{4}$"; B bulbets, the latter are quoted per hundred and blooming size bulbs per dozen, except where noted. Six will be furnished at dozen rates, less than six at one tenth the dozen prices. One hundred at eight times the dozen prices and fifty at hundred rates.

Large bulbs usually bloom sooner than small ones, though the size and quality of blooms from bulbs one inch and upwards, are as good as those from large sizes.

The letter R after the name signifies Ruffled. The letter P Primulinus. P G Primulinus Grandiflorus. All bulbs will be packed frost-proof with culture directions and delivered free of charge.

TERMS: Cash with order. For orders less than $2.00 add 15c for postage and packing. 25% will hold orders until Spring.

I am propagating and bringing to perfection many seedlings which will be introduced as soon as sufficient stock is acquired; two of which are listed herein and have been grown this past season by Mr. Chas. E. F. Gersdorff of Washington, D. C. whose report on the same is as follows:

"Your two seedlings scored very high in a most disappointing season of extremely dry weather. Under the conditions the spikes only showed seven open blooms, but these and the spikes otherwise were very excellent. I liked them very much, and believe these should make a mark for themselves in the group of real high class sorts.

MRS. C. C. THAYER: Planted May 25, bloomed July 29; seven open in a dry season; Cameo pink to rose pink, tips flashed rose color and rose red, bases of lowers pinkish buff lined rose red; open triangular form. Score 90%.

LENA HULSE: Planted May 25, bloomed July 25; begonia rose blended spectrum red, bases lowers lemon chrome lined scarlet; Amaryllis form; seven open in a dry season. Score 90%.

Had the season been favorable, these would have scored at lease three points more, as they usually grow four to four and a half feet high and show twenty or more buds and blooms.
